

ANI Innovator Profile Series Interviews Robin Austin of MINING & Jonathan Evans of DVNCN

The Alliance for Nursing Informatics (ANI) continues the ANI Innovator Profile Series in October. This is a new program to increase awareness and visibility of the individual ANI member organizations. Each of the ANI Governing Directors will be interviewed by Joyce Sensmeier MS, RN-BC, CPHIMS, FHIMSS, FAAN, Ex-Officio Chair of ANI, in order describe how their organization contributes to a unified voice for nursing informatics.

This month, profile interviews were conducted with Robin Austin, MS, RN-BC, CPHQ of Minnesota Nursing Informatics Group (MINING) and Jonathan Evans, MA, BSN, RN of Delaware Valley Nursing & Computer Network (DVNCN) as our guests.

A recording of each interview and a written transcript is available on the ANI Member Organization web page.

The Alliance for Nursing Informatics (ANI) advances nursing informatics leadership, practice, education, policy and research through a unified voice of nursing informatics organizations. We transform health and healthcare through nursing informatics and innovation. ANI is a collaboration of organizations that represents more than 5,000 nurse informaticists and brings together 30 distinct nursing informatics groups globally. ANI crosses academia, practice, industry, and nursing specialty boundaries and works in collaboration with the more than 3 million nurses in practice today.
