

ANI Innovator Profile Series Interviews
Karen Curtis of PSNI and
Sue Moorhead of CNC

The Alliance for Nursing Informatics (ANI) continues the ANI Innovator Profile Series in July. This is a new program to increase awareness and visibility of the individual ANI member organizations. Each of the ANI Governing Directors will be interviewed by Joyce Sensmeier MS, RN-BC, CPHIMS, FHIMSS, FAAN, Ex-Officio Chair of ANI, in order describe how their organization contributes to a unified voice for nursing informatics.

This month, profile interviews were conducted with Karen Curtis, RN, MBA, Governing Director for Puget Sound Nursing Informatics (PSNI) and Clinical Applications Project Manager of UW Medicine and Sue Moorhead Ph.D., RN, Director of the Center for Nursing Classification and Clinical Effectiveness (CNC) as our guests.

A recording of each interview and a written transcript is available on the ANI Member Organization web page.

The Alliance for Nursing Informatics (ANI) advances nursing informatics leadership, practice, education, policy and research through a unified voice of nursing informatics organizations. We transform health and healthcare through nursing informatics and innovation. ANI is a collaboration of organizations that represents more than 5,000 nurse informaticists and brings together 30 distinct nursing informatics groups globally. ANI crosses academia, practice, industry, and nursing specialty boundaries and works in collaboration with the more than 3 million nurses in practice today.
